This was an amazing experience from start to finish!!! It is so refreshing to find professionals that take pride in their company and their individual jobs. They started and finished when they said they would, that doesn't happen very often these days. I had found Patios by B&B in an Angie's List magazine. I looked them up on Angie's list and read all of the reviews, I then decided to go on to their website and was amazed at all of the different things that they had built. I called Paul Goldman (owner/designer) told him what I wanted. The next day his son Jeff Goldman came over, I explained what I wanted and he listened to everything I said I wanted and didn't want, he took measurements. By that evening Jeff had emailed me a the proposals to look at and as they say the rest was history. I signed the contract, Paul and Jeff came and did the final measurements, we decided on the start date. The project took two days, one day to tear down, the next day to put up my beautiful patio cover. Paul and his crew arrived early. Paul went over the plans with me and Jose, his crew leader. Jose and his crew were always on time, professional & hardworking. They always were careful with my existing plans in my patio, plus they cleaned up everyday of the project. At the end of the installation Paul checked everything out to make sure first that I was happy, and of course I am very Happy!! I highly recommend Patios by B&B to make your dreams come true!!
